REPORT OF OFFENDER NON-COMPLIANCE

NON-COMPLIANCE SUMMARY

The purpose of this report is to advise the Court of an alleged violation of the terms of supervision. The Probation Officer has developed a plan to dispose of the alleged non-compliance with action less than revocation, and the Court is requested to approve the plan to address the non-compliance.

1. NEW LAW VIOLATION

Details of alleged non-compliance: According to a Yolo County Sheriff's report, during the month of June 2009 the offender allowed a woman he was involved with to live with him temporarily. On June 18, 2009, the offender and the woman were involved in an argument and he told her to leave. The argument continued, at which time the woman called 911. The offender was taken into custody for False Imprisonment with Force and Violence, Threats to Commit a Crime, Battery Against a Person in a Dating Relationship, Injuring Wireless Communication, and Exhibiting a Deadly Weapon Other than a Firearm. On March 30, 2010, all charges originally filed were dismissed. The offender pled No Contest to a violation of 166 of the California Penal Code - Contempt, in Yolo County case number CRF 090002843. He was fined $750.00, which he paid the same day. This officer spoke to the Deputy District Attorney Deanna Hayes in Yolo County who confirmed all the charges were dismissed based on a lack of evidence.

Upon law enforcement contact, the offender contacted this officer right away. He was cooperative and apologetic for allowing the woman to live with him without notifying the probation office. As a result of his conduct, the offender was referred to the Intermediate Sanction Program run through the United States Probation Office. He successfully completed the program and has continued to do well on supervised release. He has remained gainfully employed at DeRosa Sales in Woodland, California, where he has been promoted to managing the warehouse. He has strong support from his extended family and a stable residence. He has remained in compliance with all other conditions of his supervision and has had no other contact with law enforcement.

REPORT OF OFFENDER NON-COMPLIANCE

United States Probation Officer Plan/Justification: The offender has remained compliant with all other conditions of supervision, remained stable in the community, and has had no further contact with law enforcement. Therefore, it is respectfully recommended the Court take judicial notice of the conduct and no further action be taken at this time. The offender's conduct in the community will continue to be monitored. Should any further violation conduct arise, the probation officer will immediately notify the court.

Respectfully submitted,
